The QCIDD Advisory Group

Times and Location:

- meet at 6pm at QCIDD three times per year on a Wednesday

Composition:

- people with intellectual disabilities who use QCIDD services, their families/carers, and other interested persons as invited
- a staff representative from QCIDD

Purpose:

- provide feedback on the QCIDD clinic and other relevant QCIDD services
- reflect on the broader aspects of health and well-being for people with intellectual disability
- identify gaps in general service provision, and discuss ways to overcome these gaps

Direction:

Discussions and suggestions will be taken by Dr Lisa Bridle and/or other staff representatives to the Director of QCIDD (Dr Nicholas Lennox).

Disclaimer:

QCIDD will to the best of its capacity attempt to incorporate suggestions of the Advisory Group into practice, while also meeting accountability requirements to our funding bodies and to the University of Queensland.
